ROUGH LAYOUT SKETCH

DEDICATION

Virginia Lohner Assistant Dean of the College

"If we don't appreciate ourselves, there is no way that we can appreciate each other . . . "

"I like the intimacy of this environment. An individual voice counts here, so women have the opportunity to be leaders, and have their opinions counted in a single-sex college."

These are the words of our assistant dean, Virginia Lohner, who is leaving Sweet Briar after the 1987-1988 school year is over. Her resignation has surely affected all of the community and she will certainly be missed. This dedication can never begin to repay Ms. Lohner for all she has done for Sweet Briar, but perhaps it will, at least, show our appreciation. Thank you . . .

*quotes are from the March 3, 1988, vol. 61-no. 16, issue of the Sweet Briar News; specifically from an article written by Callie Johnson.

Do you hold for us?*

Nancy Wynn — "For those who love as we love, there is no parting and no death, only eternal union." Thank you for being my friend and mentor; my proof that love is real. Thanks — Jennifer, Laura, Carol, Sam, Ginny, Moe, Kathy, Guy, Sarah, Jules, Dino, Collie, Sonia, Erica, and Anne — for all of your love, laughter, and lessons, tears, and tenderness, understanding, and acceptance, and most of all, for being yourselves! I love you!

To my little Jules, the sister I never had:
Though we may be for apart, all of our memories will continue to live in my heart and mind forever.
To Mom and Dad and all the special people in my life — you know who you ore: Thanks for helping me become the person I am today. Without all of your support, patience, caring and lots of love, I never could hove made it. Love Always.

GRADUATION

Comes The Dawn

After a while when you learn the subtle difference
Between holding a hand, and chaining a soul
And you learn love does not mean leaning
And company does not mean security
And you learn kisses are not contracts
And that presents are not promises
And you begin to accept your defeats with your head held high and your eyes open
With the grace of a woman not the grief of a child
And you learn to build all your roads on today because tomorrow's ground
Is too uncertain for plans
And futures have a way of falling down in mid-flight
After a while you learn even sunshine . . . burns, if you get too much
So you plant your own garden
And you decorate your own soul
Instead of waiting for someone . . .
to bring you flowers.
And you learn you really can endure
That you really do have worth
And you learn, and learn . . .
With every goodbye,
You learn.

The 1988 Briar Patch was published by Hunter Publishing company of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, with 650 copies of 216 pages each. The paper is 8 1/2 by 11 with a gloss finish, the end sheets are Jamestown Turquoise and the cover 120 hardback, a four-color laminated lithograph from a hand-colored black and white photograph. The photographs appearing throughout the book were taken by Gentry Studios of Salem, Virginia, and by the students of Sweet Briar College. The cover photograph is a picture of the east end of the first floor hallway of Manson. It has formerly been the tradition or habit of Briar Patch editors to make their closing remarks on the end page of their issue with a somewhat crazed, exhausted, sarcastic and sometimes bitter tone. Although crazed and exhausted, I would like to refrain from such a great temptation this year. Instead I would only like to apologize again to Lloys Frates for layout out of alphabetical order and to thank all of the people who helped me with this issue.

Thanks

Ruth Taul
